1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

a. Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Divjak.

Divjak discloses a device for supplying power to an endpoint over a power line comprising transformer 1 with primary winding 10 and secondary winding 16 connected to a first common node and a second power supply node (Fig.2), first diode 71 connected between common node and first supply node adjacent circuit 3, second diode 72 connected between common node and second supply node, third diode 75 connected between second node and second supply node, fourth diode 74 connected between first power supply node and second node, and capacitor circuit 76 coupled between first supply node and second supply node.

2. Claims 1-8 and 14-17 are allowed.

3. Claims 10-13 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

4. In applicant's remarks filed 8-15-05 it is stated that Divjak does not show a transformer coupled to a distribution line. However as clearly shown in Fig. 2, transformer 1 is coupled to DC distribution line over which signal 11 is transmitted. It appears that applicant is arguing that distribution line is some kind of electrical distribution line, but claims disclose no specific attributes of the line that would distinguish it over the distribution line taught by Divjak.

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
